Living Food Nutrition

It's about your health, it's about nutrition, it's about time! Join this class and learn about "living food nutrition." Living or raw food is food that has not been tampered with by cooking or preservatives. Linda Clark is a Living Food Nutritionist, chef, coach and trainer. Her class is a meal and an education. It's all about the living enzymes! In four classes she will prepare a variety of recipes and focus on breakfast, lunch, dinner and dessert. And you will learn about improving your health through good nutrition. This is not a "di-et." This is a "live-it" way of choosing, preparing and eating live food. Material fee of $75 is payable directly to the instructor on the first night of class and covers the cost of all fresh food for all four classes and a recipe book and research material. Bring "to go" containers to take home what you can't finish eating in class. For a preview of the meals that will be prepared, go to www.therawvegannetwork.com/lindaclark or email her and request it at lrevlin123@yahoo.com.

Writing, Publishing & Marketing Your 1st Book (or 7th)

A day-long conference for potential writers and published writers

WRITING

Bobbie Christensen, California author of ten published books including award-winners and best-sellers, will show you how to develop and complete your manuscript in just six weeks by following her 10-step plan. Create a page-turner whether writing fiction or non-fiction, cookbook or textbook.

PUBLISHING

Learn how to submit your work to a publisher or self-publish. Examine the differences between the two methods and the effect your choice has on your time, money and percentage of the profits you get to keep. Includes forms, contracts and samples. Plus learn about PODs, ebooks, etc.

MARKETING

This part of the conference will focus on the six-step marketing plan which includes how to make a profit before your book is even printed, setting up book signings for maximum sales, setting up and presenting seminars that will get rave reviews, writing news releases, and much more. Material fee $15.

Building Your Financial Portfolio on $25 a Month (or less)

Join California authors and retired bankers Bobbie and Eric Christensen for an information packed seminar on how to invest in safe, secure investments that are historically proven and will even gain during a recession. Plus what is happening in our economy and stock market today and how to use this information to improve your own finances. In easy to understand language they will explain: what your broker will never tell you; how to bypass your broker and keep the profit for yourself;

how to find safe and secure investments; what the current economy means to your wallet and what you can do about it. The Christensens are not stock brokers or financial managers but are investors just like you who have used this practical method themselves for nearly 30 years. There is an optional book available at class for $15.
